

Lord, forgive me of all my sins and set my spirit free to worship you. Amen.”

Now that you have joined God’s army, don’t be a spiritual wimp. Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might (Ephesians 6:10-20) by:

1. Telling others that Jesus is your Lord and how they may also receive eternal life.
2. Read, study, and think on the Word of God every day.
3. Be a faithful member of a Word of God church.
4. Begin to develop within you a daily prayer life.
5. Fellowship with believers of the body of Christ.

Our prayers be with you,

A story is told of two Chinese brothers, who loved each other very much. One day, the younger brother was in a bloody fight that left another person dead.

The younger brother ran off to his older brother’s house and confessed to him what he had just done and asked him if he would help him escape.

As people down below the apartment building were pointing the police to where the young man was, the older brother began to exchange his clean fresh set of clothing for his brother’s murder stained clothing.

In conclusion, the older brother was arrested and executed for that murder. He loved his brother so much that he died in exchange that his brother may live.

The Bible tells us of God coming down to earth in a human body, born of a virgin and named Jesus. He later allowed His clean garments to be exchanged for our sin-stained robe, that was used for His mockery, as He was condemned and put to shame. Matthew 27:28, Isaiah 53:1-12

At the time of Jesus’ arrest, there was a man by the name of Barrabas, who was imprisoned. No doubt his killings and robberies had made public news. He was known by name.

Just the thought of losing everything then having to pull death roll time when suddenly he was to be released a free man, but Jesus although innocent was handed over to be executed. Matthew 27:26

This message may have come to you at a time when you have lost most everything, family, home, a special loved one, job, respect, or hope. The good news about it is that it can be restored back to you if you will invite Christ Jesus to be Lord of your life.

Yes my friend, Jesus exchanged our filthy rags on the cross of Calvary for his bright and shiny armour of righteousness. He was condemned that you may have eternal life. He was put to shame to bring you into His glory. Man is not your enemy, Satan and all his flunky demons are responsible for making a mess on people’s lives. Are you going to sit back and let him continue, or are you going to fight back by joining God’s army?

God is looking for a few dedicated chosen people, separated for His service. “For many be called, but few are chosen.” Matthew 20:16

Will you join God’s army? The Kingdom of God needs you! Join the winning side into eternal life. We win — Satan loses!

If you decide to make a decision for Christ, pray this prayer vocally:

“I confess with my mouth and I believe with my heart that Jesus is Lord. I receive Christ Jesus to be the Lord of my life, and I believe that God raised Jesus from the dead.
