

This Pain Your Gain

You may be on Death Row, but no one can rob you of Eternal Life.

You may be condemned and sentenced but no one can deny you Pardon from the Great Judge who has Power to pardon every sin you have ever committed. You may be lonely but no one can deny you the companionship of Jesus Christ when you make Him your Savior and Lord.

Your cell be dark but none can prevent Jesus who is "THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD" from lighting up every corner of your heart.

There may be chaos all around you, regrets, confusion, fear and misery, but no one can take away His Peace and joy from inside you when He dwells within.

"We can do all things through Christ", all of this is promised to you FREE, for Jesus paid the price for you, let Jesus bear your burdens.
